

22. (14) (b) When the relevant petition has not been presented in accordance to these rules, it will be rejected and the member who presented the petition should be informed in writing about such rejection.