

04. (12)

In a contest between two candidates in an election by ballot, if there is an equality in the number of votes polled, election by ballot shall be held again and if there is an equality of votes in such election as well, selection of the candidate who should be excluded from election shall be made by drawing lots as decided by the Secretary.

Procedure to be followed in a context where equal number of votes received when two candidates contest