

60. (9) The Chairman shall be informed by the Secretary of the number of votes and the Chairman shall declare the said results when there is no equality in the number of votes received.