

87. (8) The Committee, subject to Chairman's approval, has powers to summon in order to obtain information difficult to be obtained easily or to get complicated matters relevant to the business of the committee explained or to obtain assistance of persons with expertise or to summon professionals or officers.