

04. (13)

The ballot papers counted shall be put in a box and when any member has been declared to have been elected as the Chairman, the said ballot box shall be sealed before the Council and after having kept it under the custody of the Secretary for a period of three months, the Secretary shall, subject to the approval of Business Advisory Committee, burn the said ballot papers along with other documents used for ballot and affirm to the ensuing Council that action was taken so.

*Proceedings
regarding ballot
papers subsequent to the election*