

71.

When a question of order has been raised, the member who raises it shall resume his seat and no other member, except by leave of Chairman, shall rise until the Chairman has ruled on the question after which the member who was addressing the Council or the Committee at the time when the question was raised shall be entitled to proceed with his speech giving effect to the ruling of the Chair.

Members to be seated until the ruling of the Chair is given for a point of order raised