

35. (1)

A Minister may make announcements on matters on which he feels that the Council should be made intelligible with relevancy to his own purview.

Minister may make statements and announcements relevant to subject under his purview