

67. (5)

A member may not speak on other matter other than any subject before the Council or upon any amendment proposed thereto or upon a point of order arising out of the debate.