

63. (1)

Whenever a communication is received from Parliament consulting the Council on any law proposed to be made with respect to any matter set out in List III of the Ninth Schedule to the Constitution, the Chairman shall, announce its receipt at the next meeting of the Council. If the Council is sitting at the time of receipt of such a communication, proceedings of the Council shall be interrupted temporarily for the making of such announcement.

*Provincial Council being consulted by the Parliament on a matter set out in
List III of the 9th Schedule to the Constitution*