

73.

If there appears to be a member who persists in irrelevance or tedious repetition of his own arguments or the arguments used by the other members in debate, or if any member acts indecently, damaging the dignity of the Council, the Chairman, having drawn the attention of the Council to such member may direct the member to discontinue his speech.

*occasions where Chairman may order to discontinue a
oppressive speech
of a member*
