

102. (2)

It shall be an instruction to the Committee on Provincial Public Accounts to examine any excess on any project of a programme and state in its report whether such excess had been incurred on the programme or only on one or more Projects of that Programme.