

66. (2) (a) Any matter which has been proposed, debated and concluded may not be permitted to propose and debate again within the same year. A matter once debated and concluded shall not be debated again within the same year
- (b) Nevertheless, if the Chairman or the Business Advisory Committee feels that the matter is of timely importance, proceedings can take place in that regard as determined by the Council or Business Advisory Committee. Taken to debate again on decisions by Council and Business Advisory Committee