

62. (1)

Whenever a communication is received from Presidential Secretariat consulting the Council on any law proposed to be formulated with respect to any matter set out in List I of the 9th Schedule to the Constitution, the Chairman shall announce its receipt at the next meeting of the Council. If the Council is sitting at the time of receipt of such a communication, proceedings of the Council shall be interrupted temporarily for the making of such announcement.

*Provincial Council being consulted by the Parliament on any matter set out in List I of the 9th Schedule
to the Constitution*